

Superhits 1290 K W L S, Pratt, Kansas...for a small staffed station with no news department does manage to air a healthy dose of various segments to fulfil our local community's needs for community-responsive programming. We regularly air public service announcements of interest to our local listeners ranging in issues from health, safety, economy, agriculture, crime & law enforcement, education & many more.

We also frequently air live interviews during our morning programming with local officials, business leaders & other personnel discussing issues of interest & concern to our listening audience.

When inclement weather presents a danger or causes cancellations or delays, K W L S airs live coverage of the situation.

During elections, K W L S airs local political forums/town hall meetings to educate listeners on the issues, as well as offering equal live air time for any political candidates wishing to discuss their platform.

K W L S additionally strives to eliminate any material which might be deemed offensive from our programming, including the music.

Documentation of our fulfilment of the interest of our local communities is filed on a quarterly basis in the issues/programs segment of our public files.

Respectfully submitted,
